

AUGUST 2012

HELLO WORLD

Lighthouses symbolize stability, show the way forward, are a beacon of safety, and help navigate through rough waters, whether those waters are financial, personal, business or spiritual in nature. Nothing else speaks of safety and security in the face of adversity and challenge quite the way a lighthouse does. From ancient fires on hilltop platforms to modern structures, they are steadfast sentinels of hope and symbols of comfort.

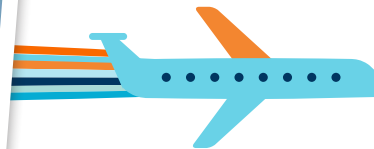

The smiles of our members, Cyndi Williamson and Ruth Tucker, light up this picture as they enjoyed their family holiday! The picture is from a trip Cyndi, her sister Ali, and Ruth took to North and South Carolina last June. In Charleston, South Carolina, they enjoyed a coastal boat tour. At the entrance to the harbor of Charleston sits the Morris Island Light, one of the colonial lights turned over to the Federal Government in 1789. Stopping at the beach, Ali took the picture with Morris Island Lighthouse in the background. They had a great time swimming in the warm Atlantic Ocean, looking for shells and relaxing. Family trips are really special and a great way to visit a place you have never been before.

SRI Federal Credit Union has not been in business quite so long as Morris Island Lighthouse (only 55 years) but has many lighthouse attributes. The credit union is strong financially, provides a safe harbor for your money, and allows you peace of mind so you can enjoy your travels without worry. Give the gift of peace of mind by extending credit union membership to your family and loved ones. Call us at 800.986.3669 or navigate to our online application at www.srifcu.org.
